

Governance – Mission and values

Kerry First Aid, trading as Cork First Aid, was founded in 2012. The registered company address is Meenleirim, Knocknagoshel, Tralee, Co. Kerry, Ireland. Operating as an affiliate to a PHECC accredited Training institute until 2025, Kerry First Aid has become one of the leading First Aid delivery providers in the west Munster area.

To ensure good governance, the company has produced key policies, procedures, processes and guidelines to meet the PHECC Quality Review Framework. These are listed in our document matrix 1.6.

Mission statement

Our mission is to empower individuals with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to respond effectively in emergencies, saving lives and reducing harm. Through accessible, high-quality training, we aim to foster a culture of preparedness, responsibility, and compassion in communities. By emphasising hands-on practice, clear communication, and inclusivity, we strive to make first aid education a cornerstone of public health and safety.

Values

To provide the highest quality of first aid education

To provide an engaging learning environment for our students

To consistently improve our education delivery

Statement of intent

Kerry First Aid Ltd. t/a Cork First Aid will make all relevant policies public facing by way of our website, once accreditation has been approved by PHECC. In addition, all reports from the Quality Review Framework will also be public facing on our website.